

The proposed timetable for relaxing the lockdown in schools and school facilities (valid from 30.4.2020)

Monday 20 th April 27 th April	Monday 11 th May	Monday 25 th May	1 st June at the earliest	June
- Universities (scientific academic institutions) – Individual activities for students in their last year of study, always up to a maximum number of 5 people. This involves individual consultations or examinations, especially state or final examinations or doctoral vivas. It will also be possible to make individual visits to a library or study room, but only for the purpose of receiving or handing in study literature - From 27th April, the aforementioned will also apply to students in other years of study at university, but only for groups of up to 5 people for the purposes of consultation, examining, clinical/practical teaching and work experience.	- Students in their final year at secondary schools, conservatories and specialist upper secondary schools – exclusively for the purpose of preparing for their school-leaving and final examinations – a maximum 15 pupils. - Year 9 pupils at primary school Exclusively for the purpose of preparing for entrance exams for secondary schools – a maximum of 15 pupils - Students in all years of study at university – up to a maximum of 15 people (this limit does not apply to clinical or practical lessons or work experience) - Lessons at arts primary schools and language schools with the right to hold state language examinations, one-year foreign language courses with daily lessons - a maximum of 15 students The activities of leisure time centres - groups of up to 15 people - Teaching at schools at children’s homes, young offenders’ institutions and youth offender institutions - Teaching in schools located at healthcare facilities	- The option of personal attendance by junior primary school pupils and organised and hobby activities of a non-compulsory nature in the form of school groups - a maximum of 15 pupils in a group (one child per desk), without the option of changing the group composition.	- The option of undertaking school-leaving and final examinations at conservatories and specialist upper secondary schools - Limited options for undertaking practical lessons (expert training) at secondary schools and expert preparation at specialist upper secondary schools – the conditions are analogous to those in school groups	- The option of undertaking entrance examinations for entry into secondary school. - The realisation of consultations or occasional educational activities in smaller groups of senior primary school pupils and secondary school pupils in the main subjects and as class lessons